

Board Secretary

■ Cheryl McPhillips is a mother of three young men whose permanent home has been in San Jose, California since July, 2001. Originally from Providence, Rhode Island, she moved to Washington, DC and then to Marietta, Georgia for her career. She lived in Marietta for sixteen years. While there Cheryl was very active in community and church activities while also managing a very busy professional career. Her community activities included president of the local women's club for a large community (over 700 homes), chairperson for elementary school activities, church liturgy leader, little league team mom multiple times and several other activities.

Presently Cheryl is a board member for the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church Golf Fellowship and a member of the hospitality committee for the church's Open Door Mountain View location.

Cheryl worked for Hewlett-Packard in the technology services area for over 27 years. She held several management positions while there. After accepting an early retirement from HP in 2007, she worked for Oracle Corporation's On Demand business unit until December, 2009. In her role there she engaged in Client Management for some of Oracle's largest clients in the Bay Area.

Cheryl joined T-Systems North America, a division of Deutsche Telekom, in January, 2010. She is the Vice President of Customer Business Management within the North America Sales and Service Management organization. In this role, Cheryl is accountable for driving the customer management function – setting up governance structure, business office management, expanding revenue and improving customer satisfaction.

In her spare time, Cheryl enjoys playing golf, traveling and spending time with family and friends.

Jeremiah's Promise is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of those youth who "age out" of the foster care system at age 18 and who would otherwise face homelessness, poverty and hopelessness.

In a residential setting, we empower these youth to become healthy, self-sufficient, productive members of the community through a comprehensive combination of services.
